- We appreciate your patience in this turn around as we are in the process of growth: new place, new face, and a bright new vision!

Eligibility: All New members since January 2008 are welcome to submit one work for this show. This is an all medium show. You may paint, photograph, set on fire ...your vision of the city of Greenville: its character its people its green spaces. All work should be original and completed within the last 3 years. Please do not submit anything that has been previously exhibited at any former UVA show, event &/or venue. Again, all original work, this meaning no academic studies with instructor reproductions or commercial painting kits. Photography & digital work needs to have a signature style. All works should be signed by the artist. We wish to showcase the highest level of professionalism. No work may exceed 48".
All work should be prepared for installation per museum standard/quality

Entry Fee: You must be a current member of Upstate Visual Arts, but there is no entry fee for the new member exhibit. It is a good time to become a new member! If your membership has lapsed in the past year, prorated dues are required. You may enclose a separate $ 40 check for your annual membership with your registration form & information. (We encourage you to indicate on the membership form any volunteer interests, ideas, workshop or additional concepts as we gear up for the New Year and our new and improved UVA VISION and programming!) Also, be sure to fill in the data sheet for your entry and attach one to your work of art and submit the other portion to receiving. Make checks payable to: Upstate Visual Arts

Sales of your Artwork: All WORKS are FOR SALE and UVA will take a 30% commission towards operations for continued shows & programming. Pricing is firm, should be consistent and must be posted upon delivery.

Free standing works: 3-D works will be displayed on pedestals as available, Nothing over 40lbs. If jewelry or other glass fusion, etc. is submitted, the artist will need to provide a secured display box.

Liability: UVA will take the utmost care in handling your art works while in our possession, but we cannot assume responsibility for insuring the works. Upstate Visual Arts has the right of refusal of works submitted. Decisions of UVA are final and reflect the creative choices of the selection committee, curator & the like. UVA reserves the right to photograph & utilize imagery to further the exposure, education and mission of Upstate Visual Arts and its membership.

Submission into the New Members Exhibition will constitute agreement by the artist with all conditions set forth in this prospectus. Thank you for your membership and if you or someone you know wishes to join Upstate Visual Arts at a more advanced membership level, we would appreciate your commitment. We look forward to all new works for this show and are excited to see & learn more about the growing members of Upstate Visual Arts.
